Chocolate, Wine & Sign: Library hosts author night for the ladies

A beloved duo will soon come together at the Norwalk Public Library, along with a sidekick that entirely holds its own. The library will be offering chocolate and wine and a chance to hear from several authors who have been penning romance novels for many years.

"Chocolate, Wine & Sign" is a ladies-night-out event that brings together authors Jamie Beck, Christi Caldwell, Erika Kelly and Katy Regnery. They will read from their books as guests not only munch on chocolate, but also on cheese and crackers.

Gift baskets will be auctioned off to raise funds for Filling in the Blanks, a New Canaan-based nonprofit fighting childhood hunger. The authors' books will be available for purchase and signing.

Beck, who is a Romance

Kelly

Writers of America Honor Roll author, is known for her St. James and Sterling Canyon series. Caldwell, who lives in Connecticut, has written more than 30 historical romance novels, including many best-sellers. Kelly diversifies her talents among poems, plays, short stories and novels. Regnery, who has become a best-selling novelist since debuting in 2012, is known for her modern fairy-tale series, along with several other works. Upcoming projects include "Don't Speak," a modern fairy tale inspired by "The Little Mermaid," and "Swan Song," inspired by "The Ugly Duckling."
