

Mixed papers Box 9 – inventory order ST-3a

- Stereopticon card, colorized, photographed by Whitney & Beckwith, Norwalk Conn., inscribed on reverse, “Legrand Lockwood’s Place, Lodge and grounds, Norwalk, Conn., Legrand between the children Florence and Eddie,” in envelope
- Stereopticon card, colorized, photographed by Whitney & Beckwith, Norwalk Conn., inscribed on reverse, “Legrand Lockwood’s Place, Norwalk, Conn., Grounds toward Sound,” in envelope
- Photograph, group of children, inscribed on reverse, “Front yard of George Mitchell School, Wolfpit Rd., early thirties,” stamped, photo, T. O’Conor Sloane, Jr., Westport, with letter of thanks to donor from Norwalk Historical Commission, 1994, in folder
- Color photograph of Mo Vaughn, scan of original owned by Richard Hoffman, with NM donation receipt sheet, 2010, in envelope
- Photographs (9) of large home, grounds and interior rooms, donated to LMMM from Geneva Historical Society, NY, 1992, with letter noting photos were given them by deceased donor: “picture came from Norwalk, Conn., home of president of my father’s company, probably 1900-1910.”, in folder
- photographs (7), originals and prints – original of horse and buggy, on reverse, “William B.E. Lockwood Jr.” – original of horse at barn door – print of Norwalk HS, West Ave. – print of glass plate city scene, 1890s? – enlargement of portion of same – three modern photo prints of areas near I-95 bridge, in folder
- Pine Island cemetery headstones, negatives with some hand alterations, in folder, with NM worksheet
- photos (8), originals and prints – 4 modern color snapshots of war memorial & cannon, Norwalk Green – photos of Norwalk flood scenes, 1955, prepared as AP wirephotos – negative (8 x 10) of workmen with carriage seat(?), in folder
- Enlargements from original photographs (9) of clothing store, front and interior, early 20th c., in folder
- photocopies (26) of old Norwalk harbor scenes, some enlargements of originals, in folder
- correspondence, originals and carbon copies, with leaflets, re Perry Laukhuff, re Norwalk historical preservation, 1960s-70s
- photos (4) of Nash Engineering building and grounds, 1925 – 1 photo of men at printing press, unidentified – booklet, 8 sheets, “Nash Men’s Outing, August 12, 1939,” photographs, with names of participants, in folder
- “Text of articles in Norwalk Gazette,” 3 sheets, transcribed by Michael D. Bromley.
- photocopies (4) of family photos of persons on Webster Court donated electronically, 2010, by Sue Hudson, with NM Donation sheet and letter
- negative image of Lockwood Hall building, 9-11 Wall St., ca. 1885, “copied from 77.11.1,” (from letterhead ?), in envelope
- Last will & testament of Alice Drew Lockwood, 5 typed sheets, photocopy, with photograph of woman, in folder
- negative of photo of South Norwalk scene, with railroad bridge and Hatch & Bailey building identifiable, in glassine envelope
- A Short History of the Norwalk Fire Department, 1 sheet, (2 photocopies), undated
- Child’s book, “Beatrice’s Goat,” by Norwalk author and illustrator, with NM donation sheet
- Photographs (2) of presentation of Emergency Services van, undated
- Modern color snapshot photos of Pine Island Cemetery, in envelope

- “Art-One,” guitar string by Sklenarik Music String Co., South Norwalk, Conn., envelope
- business cards (4), in clear enclosures, Norwalk Lock Co., A. Dickerman & Sons (2), Hatch & Bailey Co.
- small photograph of WPA mural, “Alisande and Sir Boss,” in glassine envelope, inscribed on reverse, John O’Donnell
- photocopies of business letterheads, labeled as “scan7” to “scan12,” in folder
- “Buttery’s Mill,” 2-page typescript by David MacKay, 1922, photocopy – photocopy of article “New Canaan Sawmill More Than Two Centuries Old,” on Buttery Mill with sketch by Whitman Bailey, 1949 (with new photocopy) – letter to Mrs. Frederick Lockwood, from Chet Buttery, re Buttery Mill, 1973, in envelope
- newspaper clipping of reception at Lockwood House for publication Malcolm P. Hunt’s book “Names and Places of Old Norwalk,” 1970s
- payment drafts (2) to Norwalk Iron Works Company, 1919
- Correspondence and news clippings re Pvt. John Magrath, from Robert MacDonald, 1988, in envelope
- bound notebook, titled “Articles furniture, pictures, etc. in house 15 North Avenue, Norwalk Conn.” Blank after 25 items noted
- Color group photographs (57) of local sports teams, donated by Fred Bondi, with NM donation sheet, 2/19/09, in envelope
- color photograph of house at 189 Ely Avenue, later demolished, with newspaper citation and letter from donor Rita Katona, 2003, in envelope
- negatives, advertisements for Beiersdorf cosmetics products, in envelope
- letter from “Alice,” to Ralph, 1996, identifying persons in a 1924 photo at the DAR building (not included) – Norwalk Opera House handbills (2), Oct 10, Oct 14, no date, probably before 1899 as it was produced by “Gazette Print” – newspaper ad announcing “The Falls at Silvermine, a Private Community,” undated – receipts, The Hadley Company, 1922, signed, O.F. Schultze, in envelope
- photograph of group of men in Masonic regalia, stamped on reverse, “photo by Bramac Studio, 5 Wall St., Norwalk, Conn,” in envelope addressed to Diane Rochelle
- blueprints, tracings, (9) of surveys and civil engineering maps of Norwalk properties, folded, each identified in penciled notes, in folder